A SUDDEN TWINGE

Of pain is generally the first warning of an attack of rheumatism. It feels as if the disease were in the bones or muscles, but the real cause is found in impure blood. In order to cure rheumatism the blood must be cleansed of the poisonous impurities which are the cause of the disease.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has been very successful in the cure of rheumatism, because it entirely cleanses the blood from the poisonous uric acid which is the cause of the disease.

Your 'Golden Medical Discovery' cured me of the rheumatism after I had tried a dozen remedies without relief. I was unable to move, and I came to Colorado hoping to regain my health, but failed to obtain the relief I had hoped for. A gentleman in the house where I lived advised me to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and in four months and a half after I began using it I was a well man, and have had no touch of it for the past seven months.

The sole motive for substitution is to permit the dealer to make the little more profit paid by the sale of less meritorious medicines. He gains; you lose. Therefore accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery."

These tiny, sugar-coated antacid granules regulate and invigorate Stomach, Liver and Bowels. Do not neglect the "bill of health" but keep it in good condition. One or two each day for a laxative and regulator, three or four for an active cathartic. Once tried always in favor. Put up in vials always fresh and reliable.

DR. PIERCE'S
First Appearance of Dandruff a Forerunner of Future Baldness.
That such is the case has been conclusively proven by scientific research. Prof. Unna, the noted European skin specialist, declares that dandruff is the burrowed-out cuticle of the scalp, caused by parasites destroying the vitality in the hair bulb. The hair becomes lifeless, and, in time, falls out. This can be prevented.

Newbro's Herpelide kills this dandruff germ, and restores the hair to its natural softness and abundance.
Herpelide is now used by thousands of people—all satisfied that it is the most wonderful hair preparation on the market to-day.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample. The Herpelide Co., Detroit, Mich.

THE MOROCCAN AFFAIR.

The arrival of King Edward in Paris yesterday was the occasion for a notable manifestation of Anglo-French cordiality, which was being generally interpreted last night as a conspicuous response to Germany's attitude regarding Morocco, although the king remained only a short time. He was met outside the city by President Loubet, who held a private conversation with him, lasting nearly an hour.

The details of the conversation excite a wide range of speculation, but its actual purport has not been disclosed. However, a semi-official communication recites that the meeting had far less reserve than that between King Edward and President Loubet last year, and that it was marked by the freedom of the confidence exchange.

Beyond this private conversation King Edward confined himself to the usual public expressions of good will. He spoke at the station of the pleasure a visit to France gave him; but there was not the slightest public significance upon pending political affairs. In this respect the king's reserve is being compared with the freedom of Emperor William's recent utterances. The passage of the King was unattended by any spectacular features as it was the earnest wish of the authorities to avoid a political demonstration. President Loubet joined the royal train at Pierrefitte station, where, surrounded by distinguished officials of both governments, the two rulers exchanged their first greetings. The king conducted President Loubet to his private car, where conversation continued until the Lyons railway station was reached. Outside the station the crowd was held back by cordons of police, the absence of military display being noticeable. During the half hour at the station King Edward continued to talk with President Loubet and held an extended conference with the British Ambassador at Paris, Sir Francis Leveson Bertie.

King Edward left Paris at 7:10 o'clock for Marseilles, where he was to join Queen Alexandra on board the royal yacht Victoria and Albert.

The semi-official communication relative to the meeting of King Edward and President Loubet says:

"It is natural to suppose the conversation led to an exchange of views upon all diplomatic questions of the day; but as neither has divulged the confidences it is necessary to receive with reserve the more or less ingenious versions which will be placed in circulation. Judging, however, from external appearances one cannot but remark that the meeting yesterday was marked not only by less reserve than that of last year, but notably by the greater freedom of the confidences exchanged."

Despite this official reserve the public and press herald the meeting as most significant. The Journal des Debats says:

"It is a new affirmation of the Anglo-French entente, which will be followed by naval demonstrations by British and French squadrons."

This, says the Debats, is the response to the attitude Germany has taken toward France, and the paper adds:

"It will be imprudent if statesmen at Berlin fail to observe this particularly conspicuous reaffirmation of the Anglo-French entente."

The Temps also says that the interview emphasizes the endurance of the Anglo-French entente.

The effect of the visit seems to be to strengthen the determination to proceed with France's policy in Morocco in accordance with the terms of the Anglo-French agreement, as the visit is construed as a timely expression from the signatories of that agreement.

Not much attention is paid in London to the suggestion from some quarters of the continent that the King's visit to France may be preliminary to an Anglo-French alliance. Nevertheless, following as it does on an active exchange of views between London and Paris, it is expected to help in smoothing away some of the internal controversies. Although King Edward's trip to the Mediterranean was arranged some time ago, no steps were taken to secure a meeting with M. Loubet till after Emperor William's visit to Tangier. The meeting therefore is accepted in London as in some measure intended to emphasize Anglo-French solidarity and an answer to the commentators who represent the Tangier incidents as Germany's retort to the Anglo-French agreement regarding Morocco.

In this connection Earl Percy, Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs, informed questioners in the House of Commons yesterday that the Anglo-French agreement of April 8, 1904, was never officially communicated to Germany, nor had any communications on the subject passed between Great Britain and Germany, except in reference to the Khedivial decree dealing with the Egyptian part of the agreement. The Sultan of Morocco, Earl Percy added, was not a party to the Anglo-French declaration, which was an independent arrangement between Great Britain and France for dealing with their respective interests in Morocco. Asked if Germany's treaty with Morocco secured for her special commercial rights and privileges Earl Percy said the German-Moroccan treat-

PAINFUL PERIODS

Suggestions How to Find Relief from Such Suffering.

While no woman is entirely free from periodical suffering, it does not seem to be the plan of nature that women should suffer so severely. Menstruation is a severe strain on a woman's vitality. If it is painful or irregular something is wrong which should be set right or it will lead to a serious derangement of the whole female organism.

More than fifty thousand women have testified in grateful letters to Mrs. Pinkham that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound overcomes painful and irregular menstruation.

It provides a safe and sure way of escape from distressing and dangerous weaknesses and diseases.

The two following letters tell so convincingly what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will do for women, they cannot fail to bring hope to thousands of sufferers.

Miss Nellie Holmes of 540 N. Davison Street, Buffalo, N. Y., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
"Your medicine is indeed an ideal medicine for women. I suffered misery for years with painful periods, headaches, and bearing-down pains. I consulted two different physicians but failed to get any relief. A friend from the East advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so, and no longer suffer as I did before. My periods are natural, every ache and pain is gone, and my general health is much improved. I advise all women who suffer to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Mrs. Tillie Hart, of Larimore, N. D., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
"I might have been spared many months of suffering and pain had I only known of the efficacy of Lydia E. Pinkham's Ask Mrs. Pinkham's Advice—A Woman Best Understands a Woman's Ills."

ties of 1890 were analogous to the Anglo-Moroccan treaties of 1896.

The British government has not received from Count Wolff-Meternich, the German Ambassador, or any other source a memorandum regarding Morocco similar to that handed to Secretary Taft by Baron Speck von Sternburg, the German Ambassador to the United States, Wednesday.

Germany's action in singling out the United States for an official notification of her attitude toward Morocco has created some feeling in official circles, where no attempt is made to conceal the leaning of Great Britain toward France in the Moroccan controversy.

The memorandum to the American government is generally regarded in London as a bid on the part of Germany for the United States' sympathy and support in maintaining the open door and the status quo.

While there is intense interest in the situation and the Moroccan question is discussed in all its phases in diplomatic circles, the British government is not taking any part in it, merely awaiting the next move.

A well-informed official of the British government said yesterday that France would continue her policy in Morocco, and it is firmly believed that the next step on the part of France is likely to develop a climax and bring the situation to a head.

New Cure For Cancer.

All surface cancers are now known to be curable by Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Jas. Walters, of Duffield, Va., writes: "I had a cancer on my hip for years, that seemed incurable, till Bucklen's Arnica Salve healed it and now it is perfectly well." Guaranteed cure for cuts and burns. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

The Right Name is DeWitt.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cools, soothes and heals cuts, burns, boils, bruises, piles and all skin diseases. K. E. Ziehefoss, Adolph, W. Va., says: "My little daughter had white swelling so bad that piece after piece of bone worked out of her leg. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured her. It is the most wonderful healing salve in the world. Beware of counterfeits. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Son, 924 Queen Street."

Taking Desperate Chances.

It is true that many contract colds and recover from them without taking any precaution or treatment, and a knowledge of this fact leads others to take their chances instead of giving their colds the needed attention. It should be borne in mind that every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality, makes the system less able to withstand each succeeding cold and paves the way for more serious diseases. Can you afford to take such desperate chances when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cure of colds, can be had for a trifle? For sale by Gibson & Timmerman and W. F. Creighton & Co.
